

Year 5/6 Formal Elements of Art Cycle A

Key vocabulary
Abstract	Art that does not represent the everyday world.
Amphitheatre	An oval or circular building with rising tiers of seats arranged about an open space.
Ancient	Very old.
Architects	Designers of buildings
Composition	The placement or arrangement of the different things within a work of art.
Image	The picture
Legacy	Something that exists as a result of things that happened in the past.
Ornate	Excessively decorated.
Pattern	A repeated decorative design
Representation	Something that is created to look like a particular thing or person.
Stadium	A building for sports events with space for spectators
Symbolism	The use of Symbols to express or represent ideas.

Key Knowledge
First-hand drawings	First-hand drawings are drawn from life, not from pictures.
Second-hand drawings	Second-hand drawings are drawn from a photograph or a picture, rather than the real object or place.
Architectural style	An architectural style refers to the features that make a building historically identifiable, such as the shape, materials used and methods of construction.

Artist
Frederick Hundertwasser	   Hundertwasser was a modern Austrian born New Zealand artist and architect. He is best known for his use of colour and shapes within his architecture.        